

Soaring Safety Foundation Wing Runner Course

The Soaring Safety Foundation and the Civil Air Patrol have a Wing Runner Course available at: <http://www.soaringsafety.org/school/wingrunner/toc.htm>

It is a very well done course consisting of modules to read and then has a final exam.

The exam questions are easy, but navigating to the exam is a bit tricky.

When you have finished the modules and go to the exam page you will see the following dialog box. The trick is to click on the here link highlighted by the red arrow in the example below. Just ignore the drop down box, the CAPID box, the Name box and the [Next] button as well as the stuff on the bottom.

The following quizzes are available.
